By the KING,

A PROCLAMATION,

For the Suppreſſion of the Mutinous and Treaſonable Proceedings of the Crews of Our Ships at the Nore.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS, upon the Repreſentation of Our Lords Commiſſioners of Our Admiralty reſpecting the Proceedings of the Seamen and Marines on Board certain of Our Ships at the Nore, We were pleaſed to command Our ſaid Lord Commiſſioners of the Admiralty to ſignify to the ſaid Seamen and Marines Our gracious Intentions, expreſſed in Our Royal Declaration, under Our Sign Manual, bearing Date at St. James's, the Twenty-ſeventh Day of May inſtant, in the Words following: "Whereas it has been repreſented unto Us, that, "notwithſtanding the Declarations made in Our "Name, and by Our Authority, by Our Lords "Commiſſioners of Our Admiralty, of Our gracious "Intentions to recommend to the Conſideration of "Parliament, to augment the Wages and Allowances of the Seamen and Marines of Our Fleet, "which Our gracious Intentions and Declarations "have ſince been carried into Effect by an Act of "Parliament; and, notwithſtanding the Communication made by Our Right Truſty and Right "Well-beloved Couſin and Councillor Richard Earl "Howe, Admiral of Our Fleet, of Our gracious "Intentions towards the Seamen and Marines of "Our Fleet, for the Pardon of the Offences by "them committed, and Our Royal Proclamation "thereupon, bearing Date the Eleventh Day of "May inſtant; and notwithſtanding the Sentiments "of Duty and Gratitude with which the ſame were "received by the Seamen and Marines of Our other "Squadrons, yet the Crews on Board certain of "Our Ships at the Nore have not only ſince the "full Manifeſtation of all theſe Our gracious Intentions and Declarations been guilty of divers "Acts of Mutiny and Diſobedience of Orders, "but have even proceeded to other Acts of the "moſt heinous and treaſonable Nature, by firing "upon ſome of Our Ships in order to compel them "to ſubmit to their Direction; have threatened "and taken Meaſures for ſtopping the Commerce "of the Kingdom paſſing to and from the Port of "London, and have, by Terror of their Force, "compelled Two Frigates to deſiſt from executing "a particular Service, which by Our Orders they "were directed to perform: We, thinking it right "to warn all Our Seamen and Marines on Board the "ſaid Ships of the heinous Nature of the Offences by "them committed, and of the dangerous Conſequences thereof to the Spirit and Diſcipline of the "Britiſh Navy, and to the Welfare of their Country, "as well as their own Safety, do hereby earneſtly "require and enjoin all Our ſaid Seamen and Marines, immediately on the Notification of this "Our Royal Declaration, to return to the regular "Diſcharge of their Duty, as has already been done "by the Crews of Our other Squadrons and Fleets, "ſtationed at Portſmouth and Plymouth, and elſewhere: And whereas We are well aſſured that a "great Part of the Seamen and Marines on Board "the ſaid Ships at the Nore abhor and deteſt the "Criminal Proceedings which are ſtill perſiſted in "on Board the ſaid Ships, and are deſirous to return "to their Duty: Now, We being deſirous to extend Our Gracious Intentions of Pardon to all "ſuch Seamen and Marines ſo ſerving on Board "Our ſaid Ships at the Nore, who may have returned, or ſhall return, upon the Notification of "this Our Royal Declaration, to the regular and "ordinary Diſcharge of their Duty, have authorized, "and do hereby authorize and empower Our ſaid "Lords Commiſſioners of Our Admiralty, or any "Three of them, to ſignify to all ſuch Seamen and "Marines, who may have been guilty of any of the

" the treaſonable Acts aforeſaid, or of any Mutiny " or Diſobedience of Orders or Neglect of Duty, " and who have returned, or who ſhall, upon " Notification hereof on Board their reſpective " Ships, return to the regular and ordinary Diſ- " charge of their Duty, Our Royal Intentions to " grant to all ſuch Seamen and Marines Our moſt " Gracious Pardon, and to promiſe, in Our Name, " to all ſuch Seamen and Marines, who have ſo " returned, or ſhall ſo return to the regular and " ordinary Diſcharge of their Duty, Our moſt " gracious Pardon accordingly: And We do hereby " declare, that all ſuch Seamen and Marines, who " ſhall have ſo returned, or ſhall ſo return to their " Duty, and to whom the ſaid Lords Commiſſioners " of Our Admiralty, or any Three of them, ſhall " ſo promiſe Our Pardon, ſhall receive the ſame " accordingly, and ſhall be diſcharged and releaſed " from all Proſecutions, Impriſonments and Penalties " incurred by reaſon of any of the Acts aforeſaid, " or by reaſon of any Act of Mutiny or Diſobedience " of Orders, or any Breach or Neglect of Duty " previouſly committed by them or any of them; " hereby declaring at the ſame Time, that all ſuch " Seamen and Marines who ſhall not take the " Benefit of this Our gracious Pardon, ſhall from " henceforth be conſidered as liable, according to the " Nature of their Offences, to ſuch Puniſhmennt as the " Articles of War and the Law have provided for the " ſame." And whereas Our Right Truſty and Right Well-beloved Couſin and Councillor George John Earl Spencer, Our Truſty and Well-beloved Charles George Lord Arden of Our Kingdom of Ireland, and William Young, Eſquire, Rear-Admiral of the White, being Three of the Lords Commiſſioners of Our Admiralty, did cauſe Our gracious Intentions expreſſed in ſuch Our Declaration, to be ſignified to the Crews of Our Ships at the Nore, and did require ſuch Crews to return to their due Obedience accordingly: And whereas it has been repreſented to Us, that ſome of the Crews of Our ſaid Ships have been deſirous of returning to their Obedience accordingly, but have been prevented from ſo doing by Violence; and others of Our Ships, in the actual Diſcharge of their Duty, have been fired upon, and Attempts have been made to prevent ſome of Our Ships from proceeding according to the Orders of their Commanders: And whereas ſuch continued Perſeverance in rebellious and treaſonable Attempts againſt Our Crown and Dignity, after repeated Admonitions and offers of Our gracious Pardon, render it neceſſary for us to call on all Our loving Subjects to be aiding and aſſiſting in repreſſing the ſame; We have thought fit, by the Advice of Our Privy Council, to iſſue this Our Royal Proclamation, and We do hereby ſtrictly enjoin and command all Our Admirals, Generals, Commanders and Officers of Our Forces by Sea and Land, and all Magiſtrates whatſoever, and all others Our loving Subjects, that they, in their ſeveral Stations, do uſe their utmoſt Endeavours, according to Law, to ſuppreſs all ſuch mutinous and treaſonable Proceedings, and to uſe all lawful Means to bring the Perſons concerned therein, their Aiders and Abettors, to Juſtice: And We do hereby ſtrictly enjoin and command all Our loving Subjects whatſoever not to give any Aid, Comfort, Aſſiſtance or Encouragement whatſoever to any Perſon or Perſons concerned in any ſuch mutinous and treaſonable Proceedings, as they will anſwer the ſame at their Peril; and alſo, to the utmoſt of their Power and according to Law, to prevent all other Perſons from giving any ſuch Aid, Aſſiſtance, Comfort or Encouragement.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, the Thirty-firſt Day of May, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſeven, and in the Thirty-ſeventh Year of Our Reign.

Parliament-Street, June 6, 1798.

A DISPATCH, of which the following is a Copy, has been received by the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, from Sir Ralph Abercromby, K. B. Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Forces in the West Indies.

His Majesty's Ship Prince of Wales, off Porto Rico, May 2, 1797.

SIR,

AFTER the Reduction of Trinidad, the Force destined for the Expediton against Porto Rico being assembled, on the 8th of April the Fleet sailed from Martinico and arrived at St. Kitt's on the 10th, where we waited the Arrival of Captain Woolley of His Majesty's Ship Arethusa, who had been sent to Tortola and St. Thomas to procure Pilots and Guides. This occasioned the Delay of a few Days.

On Monday the 17th we made the Island of Porto Rico, and came to an Anchor off Congrejos Point. The Whole of the North Side of this Island is bounded by a Reef, and it was with much Difficulty that a narrow Channel was discovered, about Three Leagues to the Eastward of the Town, through which His Majesty's Sloops the Beaver and Fury, with the lighter Vessels, passed into a small Bay, in which the Troops, on the next Morning, were disembarked with little Opposition from about a Hundred of the Enemy, who were concealed in the Bushes at the Landing Place. In the Afternoon of the same Day the Troops advanced, and took a Position very favourable for our Numbers, with our Right to the Sea, and the Left to a Lagoon, which extends far into the Country. The Artillery was brought up without Loss of Time, and every Preparation made to force a Passage into the Island on which the Town of Porto Rico is situated. It is necessary here to observe, that as the Moro Castle completely commands the Passage into the Harbour, the Enemy kept open their Communication with the Southern and Western Part of the Island, and even teazed and harrassed our Left Flank with their numerous Gun-Boats. The only Point, therefore, on which we could attack the Town was on the Eastern Side, where it is defended by the Castle and Lines of St. Christopher, to approach which it was necessary to force our Way over the Lagoon, which forms this Side of the Island. This Passage was strongly defended by Two Redoubts and Gun-Boats, and the Enemy had destroyed the Bridge which connects in the narrowest Channel the Island with the Main Land. After every Effort on our Part, we never could sufficiently silence the Fire of the Enemy, (who had likewise entrenched themselves in the Rear of these Redoubts,) to hazard forcing the Passage into the Island with so small a Force; and this indeed would have been in vain, as the Enemy could support a Fire ten Times more powerful than we could have brought against them. The only Thing left was to endeavour to bombard the Town from a Point to the Southward of it, near to a large Magazine abandoned by the Enemy. This was tried for several Days without any great Effect on Account of the Distance.

It appearing, therefore, that no Act of Vigour on our Part, nor that any combined Operation between the Sea and Land Service, could in any Manner avail, I determined to withdraw, and to re-embark the Troops, which was done on the Night of the 30th of April, with the greatest Order and Regularity.

All our Artillery and Stores were brought off, except Seven Iron Guns, Four Iron Mortars, and Two Brass Howitzers, which were rendered unserviceable, it being impossible to remove them. Not a sick or wounded Soldier was left behind, and nothing of any Value fell into the Hands of the Enemy.

During the Whole of our Operations, I have experienced from Admiral Harvey the most cordial Co-operation, and every Act of personal Kindness. At my Request he landed Three Hundred Seamen, under Captains Toddy and Browne, of the Royal Navy, to whose Exertions while on Shore we are under the greatest Obligations. From the Arrangements of the Admiral, the Landing and Re-embarkation of the Troops were conducted in the best Order. To Captain Renou, of the Royal Navy, principal Agent of the Transports, I desire to express the Sense I have of his good Conduct upon all Occasions.

I beg Leave to assure you, that the Behaviour of the Troops has been meritorious; they were patient under Labour, regular and orderly in their Conduct, and spirited when an Opportunity to shew it occurred. All the Departments of the Army exerted themselves to my Satisfaction. A Return of our Killed and Wounded accompanies this Dispatch.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

RA. ABERCROMBY.

P. S. I have omitted to say, that Four Spanish Brass Field Pieces fell into our Hands, which were brought off.

Admiralty-Office, June 6, 1797.

Extract of a Letter from Vice-Admiral Sir Hyde Parker, Knt. Commander in Chief of His Majeſty's Ships and Veſſels at Jamaica, to Evan Nepean, Eſq; dated on Board His Majeſty's Ship Queen, at Cape Nichola Mole, April 27, 1797.

HAVING on the 16th Inſtant received Information from Captain Biſſett, of His Majeſty's Ship Janus, that he had chaced into Maregot the French Frigate Harmonie the Evening before, and being myſelf obliged, for Want of Proviſions, to return to this Port with the Queen, Thunderer, and Valiant, I directed Captain Ogilvy to make Sail in the Evening, and lay off the Bay of Maregot all Night; and, on not diſcovering the French Frigate there in the Morning, he was directed to proceed cloſe along Shore between the Iſlands of Tortuga and Port au Paix; the Queen and Valiant keeping without Tortuga. On opening the Thunderer to the Weſtward of Tortuga, Captain Ogilvy made the Signal for an Enemy in the S. E. and, on his coming within Hail, had the Satisfaction to find he had chaced the Frigate into Moſtique Bay; and it was his Opinion ſhe might be deſtroyed, which I inſtantly gave him Orders to uſe his utmoſt Endeavours to execute, and directed the Valiant to aſſiſt. The Sequel their Lordſhips will beſt underſtand by a Copy of Captain Ogilvy's Report, (No. 1.) Although there was no Proportion as to Force, yet the Conſequences will be attended, I truſt, with the greateſt Advantages to His Majeſty's Service, as from the very great Scarcity of Proviſions at Cape François, the French Deputies had forced, contrary to the Opinion of the Captain and Officers, this Frigate to go out, in order to convoy a Number of American Veſſels, loaded with Proviſions, that had been captured by their Privateers, and carried into the Port of Port au Paix and Jean Rabel up to Cape François.

In the Road of Jean Rabel I found on my Paſſage down Fourteen laying there; and it appearing to me practicable to cut them out, I directed Captain Pigot, of the Hermione, to take under his Command the Mermaid, Quebec, Drake Brig, and Penelope Cutter, and execute that Service, which, a Copy of his Report, (No. 2.) will prove to their Lordſhips he did in the moſt complete Manner; and from Captain Pigot's able and Officer-like Diſpoſition, I have the Satisfaction of ſaying, was executed without a Man being hurt, although the Road was defended by a Battery of Five Guns (Thirty-Two Pounders), and the Veſſels anchored within Half-Muſquet Shot of the Shore.

You will alſo be pleaſed to lay before their Lordſhips the Report of Captains Ricketts and Pigot, (No. 3 and 4) of Veſſels cut out and deſtroyed from Two Anchorages at the Weſt End of Porto Rico.

SIR, Thunderer, at Sea, April 16, 1797.

IN conſequence of your Order to attend to the French Frigate I chaſed into Moſtique Yeſterday Morning, I beg Leave to inform you, that, at a Quarter paſt Four Yeſterday Evening, the Valiant following in cloſe Order, I bore up to examine the Entrance of Moſtique Inlet, keeping ſo cloſe in Shore as to be in Four Fathom Water, when a-breaſt of the Frigate, but the Wind blew ſo hard, it was impoſſible to anchor, without a Certainty of driving on the Rocks. A little before Five I opened my Fire on the French Frigate and Battery, and ſhortly after, the Valiant did the ſame; but I was ſorry to find the Force of Wind did not allow the Ships to remain long in our Stations, though I had reduced the Ship to her Top-Sails, and braced the Yards different Ways, for the Purpoſe of ſtopping her Way. Finding it too late to perform the ſame Evolution that Evening, I hauled off, and took ſuch a Station as I thought moſt likely to prevent her Eſcape; and this Morning I had the Satisfaction to find that the well-directed Fire of the Two Ships had induced her to quit her Anchorage, by which Means ſhe fell into ſuch a Situation between the Two Ships as made her Eſcape impoſſible. At Seven o'Clock this Morning, finding herſelf in that Situation, ſhe was run on Shore, and ſet Fire to by the Crew; and Forty-ſeven Minutes paſt Eight ſhe blew up. What remains of the Wreck is cloſe to the Shore, about Four Miles to Windward of Jean Rabel. I have every Reaſon to think ſhe was the Harmonie, of Forty-four Guns. It is with the greateſt Satisfaction I inform you, that this Service has been performed without the Loſs of a Man, though the Ships ſuffered a little, in their Maſts, Sails, Rigging and Hull. I am much indebted to Captain Crawley, of the Valiant, for the cloſe Order in which he followed me, and the ſtrict Attention he paid to the Orders I gave him before I bore up. From the ſmall Specimen I have had of the Conduct of the Officers and Men belonging to His Majeſty's Ship Thunderer, under my Command, I am convinced, that if an Opportunity of real Service offered they would do Credit to the Country they belong to.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

(Signed) WILL. OGILVY.

Hermione, at Cape St. Nicholas, April 21, 1797.

SIR,

I Have the Honor to inform you, that, purſuant to your Order of the 18th Inſtant, I have proceeded with His Majeſty's Ship Mermaid off the Eaſt End of Tortuda, to endeavour to fall in with the Drake and Penelope, and was joined by them and His Majeſty's Ship Quebec at Sun-ſet on the 19th.

The Wind being very light, and a ſtrong Current ſetting to the Eaſtward, I judged we ſhould not reach Jean Rabel before Day-light, therefore ſtood to the North-Weſt until Three o'Clock in the Afternoon of the 20th, keeping far enough from the Land to prevent any Suſpicion of our Intentions, having determined to attempt ſurpriſing the Veſſels with the Boats under Cover of the Night.

I directed the ſeveral Captains to make the neceſſary Preparations for that Purpoſe, and ſtood in, carrying a Proportion of Sail to be cloſe in Shore to the Eaſtward of Jean Rabel, before the Land Wind came off, in which we ſucceeded to my Wiſhes, and kept running down to the Weſtward until I ſuppoſed we were within Two Miles of the Veſſels, when the Boats were ſent in with Directions to row cloſe along Shore until they diſcovered them, it being then ſo dark we could not ſee them from the Ships; the Frigates followed under an eaſy Sail, keeping about a Mile from the Shore, to draw the Attention of the Enemy, and thereby favour the Attempt of the Boats. At about One o'Clock I perceived a Fire of Muſquetry, at which Time the Enemy had diſcovered the Boats, but not until they were in Poſſeſſion of many of the Veſſels, and had One actually under Way. The Batteries almoſt immediately opened upon the Ships, which was occaſionally returned by them, and about Four o'Clock the Veſſels were all in Poſſeſſion of our People, and ſtanding out with the Land Breeze, except Two ſmall Row-Boats, which were hauled upon the Beach, and could not be got off. I cannot omit expreſſing my my Thanks to Captains Cook, Otway, and Perkins, for their Advice and ready Aſſiſtance in the Execution of the above Service, and my Approbation of the Conduct and Exertions of the Officers and Crews belonging to the different Ships, eſpecially thoſe employed in the Boats; and it is with particular Satisfaction I have to inform you, that it has been executed without a Man being hurt. Encloſed I have the Honor to tranſmit to you a Liſt of the Nine Veſſels which were brought out by the Boats.

And am, &c. &c. &c.

(Signed) HUGH PIGOT,

Sir Hyde Parker, Knt. Vice-Admiral of the Red, and Commander in Chief, &c. &c. &c.

La Magicienne, Calabaſh Bay, April 8, 1797.

SIR,

I Have the Satisfaction to inform you, that the Boats belonging to the Magicienne and Regulus, officered and manned by Volunteers from the Two Ships, in the Night of the 6th Inſtant, entered the Harbour of Cape Roxo in this Iſland, the great Receptacle for French Privateers and their Prizes, when they captured, ſunk and burnt Thirteen Sail of ſquare-rigged Veſſels and Schooners, the whole in the Port, (except a Daniſh Ship) and deſtroyed Two Batteries of Two Guns each, Six and Four Pounders, at the Entrance and Head of the Harbour, without the Loſs of a Man.

This Service was ſo admirably well executed, that I think it a Duty incumbent upon me to make known to you the Names of every Officer employed on it.

I have the Honor to be, &c. &c. &c.

W. H. RICKETTS.

Hermione, at Cape Nichola, April 15, 1797.

I Have the Honor to inform you, that, on the 22d of March, ſtanding in between the Iſland of Zacheo and the Weſt End of Porto Rico, I diſcovered a Brig and ſeveral ſmaller Veſſels at Anchor cloſe in Shore, and had the good Fortune to ſucceed in bringing the Hermione to an Anchor within Half a Mile of them, and abreaſt of a ſmall Battery, which immediately opened a Fire upon the Ship, but was very ſhortly ſilenced.

I ſent the Boats, under the Direction of Lieutenants Reid and Douglas, to take Poſſeſſion of the Veſſels; and though they were aground, and a ſmall Fire of Muſquetry kept up by the Enemy, they brought them all out but Two, which were ſunk, and I am happy to ſay without a Man being hurt. The following Day I ſent the Boats, under the Direction of Lieutenant Reid, to land and endeavour to ſpike and diſmount the Guns, which they effected without Loſs, and the Enemy had, on our firſt Appearance, taken the Sails of the Veſſels away, and otherwiſe diſmantled them. I ſet Fire to them all but the Brig, Three of which were French Privateers, and the others their Prizes, making in all Fifteen, beſides the Brig.

In executing the Service, I feel it but Juſtice to the Officers and Ships Company under my Command, to expreſs my Approbation of their Conduct and Exertions, particularly thoſe employed in the Boats, which Service was attended with much Riſk and Fatigue, and executed with the greateſt Chearfulneſs, Spirit, and good Judgment.

The Brig belongs to Bremen, and was captured by one of the Privateers a Month before; ſhe is laded very deep, and is a very valuable Veſſel.

I have the Honor to be, &c. &c. &c.
